SLP PANEL

Tuesday, April 3rd: 12:30-2pm

“A Day in the Life of a SLP”: Four SLPs will join you virtually and in person to discuss what it’s “really” like to be a practicing SLP. Diverse populations and disorder areas will be addressed. Organizer: Kim Caul

PERSEPECTIVES: CLIENT TO SLP

Tuesday, April 10th: 6:15-7:15pm

A former client of the UWSHC now owns a private practice, specializing in evaluation & treatment of fluency. Tim will join us remotely and allow you to ask questions about private practice, fluency, and telepractice.
Presenter: Tim Mackesey

LATE STAGE JOB SEARCH Q&A

Friday, April 13th: 10:30am-12pm

Come with your questions related to managing offers, contracts, negotiation, and all aspects of landing a CFY!
Presenter: Courtney Seidel

TRANSITIONING BETWEEN SITES

Friday, April 20th: 11am-12:30pm

Discuss the breadth of employment options within educational and healthcare settings, as well as how to successfully transition between these employment settings.
Presenter: Courtney Seidel
